Lutheran Disaster Response

Lutheran Disaster Response (LDR) collaborates with synods, congregations, Lutheran ministries and other faith-based partners to accompany communities impacted by floods, hurricanes, wild fires, severe storms, and tornadoes. Since these natural disasters require a long-term response, Lutheran Disaster Response and our partners support communities on the long road to recovery with disaster case management, construction management and emotional and spiritual care.

100% of Gifts given to Lutheran Disaster Response are used to equip them to respond to this, and other disasters, whenever and wherever they strike. Donate at ELCA.org/LDR. Gifts may also be designated to help in a specific area—for instance, hurricane, wild fires, severe storms, tornadoes, flood response or to provide assistance internationally

Brookview Golf, Golden Valley

The Art of Neighboring:

Listening is a form of spiritual hospitality by which you invite strangers to become friends, to get to know their inner selves more fully, and even to dare to be silent with you.

- Henri Nouwen

The art of hospitality is more than entertaining and preparing fine food. While, for many, delicious food may be their love language, learning to listen and be present is paramount if we are to take every opportunity to open our lives and homes to others.

Books for Sale

Over time we have collected a number of books from past Faith & Life speakers and class materials. Rather than having them stored away, we thought others might want to read them. Stop in Fellowship Hall to check out the book table. You are invited to make a free will offering for any books you choose.

Worship Assistants

As we begin a new program year, adults and youth are invited to register to serve as worship assistants at one of the four weekend worship services. You may register at spdcl.org/register. Opportunities include:

- Reading the Gospel (adults)
- Reading the Lesson (children and youth)
- Serving Communion (adults and youth)
- Participating in the Processional (9:30 a.m. service)
We invite adults, children and youth.
You may register as an individual, couple or family
